Use a tourniquet when a vein is difficult to find.

Always use a tourniquet from your harm reduction program because it is elastic enough for quick and easy release.

The smallest amount of blood can remain on a tourniquet. Sharing it can put others at risk.

Talk to your harm reduction site about the supplies they have available.

YOUR HEALTH MATTERS Use safe. Carry naloxone.